

Living Learning Programs End of Year Report

At Oklahoma State University (OSU), LLPs are considered a high impact practice. LLP administrators provided additional support, learning and research opportunities to students within LLPs. The strategies implemented are associated with student success.

Students who participated in an LLP during the 2023-2024 academic year presented a retention rate of 91% and average GPA of 3.48, illustrating the impact LLPs have on first year student achievement.

First year students who were part of the LLP were more likely to return for the second year.
